

Speech-Language Pathologist (Hybrid Remote/In-Person Position)

Children's Therapy Collective is currently seeking a passionate Speech-Language Pathologist to join our team on a full-time basis (~37.5 hours/week) from as soon as possible until June 27th, 2025.

This hybrid remote/in-person position is based 50% in Nelson House, Manitoba, and 50% remote work from home: spending four nights every two weeks in Thompson, Manitoba (on average). Work in Nelson House will be based in the high school/elementary school in the community in collaboration with the existing clinical and educational support team.

Responsibilities:

- Provide high-quality speech-language services (school-based) to children and youth, including assessment, intervention, training of adults supporting the student, monitoring one-on-one and group settings.
- When appropriate, plan and facilitate classroom and school-based activities and interventions to promote speech-language development.
- Maintain up-to-date documentation and case notes
- Participate in team meetings and effectively communicate with the Nelson House staff team and the Children's Therapy Collective speech-language team lead
- Practice in a manner that meets and/or exceeds the standard set out by the College of Speech-Language Pathologists and Audiologists of Manitoba

Qualifications:

- Masters degree and registration in good standing with the College of Speech-Language Pathologists and Audiologists of Manitoba, or eligibility to become registered with the College of Speech-Language Pathologists and Audiologists of Manitoba.
- Strong technical, computer skills
- Possess or be willing to obtain adequate professional liability insurance in Manitoba.
- Proficiency in applying a trauma-informed approach to therapy/counseling
- Excellent organizational and time-management skills, as well as strong team and independent working skills
- Current criminal record check and child abuse registry check

Assets:

- Experience working with children with complex physical, cognitive, mental, behavioural, or social issues
- Experience and/or education about working with Indigenous groups
- Knowledge of inclusive education principles

Compensation and Benefits:

- Competitive hourly wage commensurate with experience and qualifications
- 37.5 hour work week inclusive of travel time and with flex time policy in place to allow for extra time banked during travel/on-location work to be taken off on remote work weeks.
- Health and Dental Plan

- Work from home every other week.
- Per diem for meals, mileage, and expenses while in Nelson House.
- Comfortable accommodations provided in Thompson, MB.
- Eligible home office and technology expenses covered

About Us:
